People are not disturbed by things, but by the view they take of them.

It's not what happens to you, but how you react to it that matters.

We have two ears and one mouth so we can listen twice as much as we talk.

Epictetus - Stoic philosopher, 50 - 135 BC

From The Flute of GOD
By Paul Twitchell

The dwelling of all is Absolute Spirit. It is Spirit not yet differentiated into any specific manner. It is Universal Spirit, which pervades all things and is as the heart of all appearance. To come into the knowledge of this is to come into the secret of power, is to enter into the secret place of livingness as psalmist sang in the 91st Psalm: One who dwells in the secret place of the most high dwells in the light of the Almighty.

The presence of this undifferentiated Spirit is the ultimate factor to which thinking must lead us. On whatever plane one seeks one must seek only the pure essence, pure energy, pure being which knows Itself and recognizes Itself, but which cannot dissect Itself because It is not built of parts.

Spirit has three main qualities which are freedom, charity, and wisdom. It is a general force working through specializing agents or consciousness upon the plane of the particular. It is a forming power that works in a creative way. It has the power to react upon Itself when there are no conscious agents through which it can operate.

Life force or Spirit on every plane operates in a similar manner to that of this plane, though at a higher creative level. It penetrates all planes, all forms which are the effect of this power. Divine Unity works at its best when It's distributing agent, Soul, uses its higher qualities of freedom, charity, and wisdom. These, united with the individual consciousness as wavelength of a specializing nature through Soul, create effects upon the planes, and the life forms existing there
